

Home Study Continuing Education Program

Practicing Feminist Ethics In Psychology Edited By Mary M. Brabeck

Certification ID:

Home Study Program

Instructions

1. Purchase/obtain the book or article.
2. Read the book or article.
3. Complete the test with a score of 75% or better.
 - a. You may take it online if you wish. Please refer to the instructions on the registration page of the test packet.
 - b. You may take the test more than once at no cost.
4. Sign the test form.
5. Send/fax the test and evaluation to:

Commonwealth Educational Seminars
1020 West Barnstable Rd
Marstons Mills, MA 02648

Fax: (508) 420-3360

Questions? Phone: 800) 376-3345 or email at info@CommonwealthSeminars.com

Approved for Social Workers, Psychologists, Licensed Mental Health Counselors, LADCs, Certified Counselors and NAADAC members.

Commonwealth Educational Seminars Certification Exam

Practicing Feminist Ethics in Psychology Edited by Mary M. Brabeck Ph.D.

Select one response for each question below.

1. Among other traits, feminist theory has been defined as a distinct theoretical perspective.

- a. True b. False

2. Feminist practitioners should acknowledge the limits of their own standpoint and know that they are affected by their own ethnicity, class, sexual orientation, and culture.

- a. True b. False

3. If the legal system does not recognize the equal rights of women and if attitudes and social standards for acceptable male behavior fail to protect women from male violence, we must engage in work to change these unjust structures and to rid individuals of oppressive practices and the attitudes that support them.

- a. True b. False

4. When an ethical person discerns a wrong against a group or an individual, he or she is obligated to act.

- a. True b. False

5. The virtue of practical wisdom is not relevant to a feminist ethical stance.

- a. True b. False

6. It is not essential for white feminists to make whiteness a central, self-reflective topic of inquiry within discussions of feminist ethics.

- a. True b. False

7. Feminist practitioners have not entered the forensic arena.

- a. True b. False

8. Ethical principles initially applied to the therapeutic setting can guide other forms of practice, including research and scientific thought.

- a. True b. False

9. One of the most egregious suggestions is that there is an epidemic of false memory syndrome.

- a. True b. False

10. Because we know that an essentially true recovered memory is possible and that an essentially false memory is also possible, then logically individually contested memories can only be adjudicated on an individual basis.

- a. True b. False

11. An ethical problem inherent in many deception studies is that participants are typically college students who are required to participate for introductory psychology course credit.

- a. True b. False

12. Just as social communication in real time has been a key issue for feminist activism for the past 3 decades, this does not mean that social cybercommunication needs similar attention.

- a. True b. False

13. Ellen Balka (1995), a feminist community organizer, pointed out the difficulties in bringing feminist organizations onto the "information superhighway."

- a. True b. False

14. Research demonstrates that far from being an isolating depersonalizing experience, communication through a screen to an unseen other cannot actually enhance thoughtfulness.

- a. True b. False

15. Cyberspace by its very nature is multicultural and multinational.

- a. True b. False

16. Feminists must use cyberspace as an instrument of empowerment, both individually and globally.

- a. True b. False

17. The feminist movement has always found heart and soul in the act of consciousness raising, which relies heavily on self-reflection, self-awareness and voice giving.

- a. True b. False

18. Perceptions of "harm" or "welfare of others" may be construed very differently, depending on the situational context and the perspectives of the decision maker.

- a. True b. False

19. Regarding models of ethical decision making, the traditional approach is not based on the assumption of "reasoned choice."

- a. True b. False

20. In traditional academic settings, women are frequently self-silenced or without a voice.

- a. True b. False

21. One of the more controversial themes of feminist pedagogy is encompassed by the two principles of "transforming the discipline" and "advocating for activism and social change."

- a. True b. False

22. The feminist professor is not frequently confronted with situations in which the realities of traditional academic expectations must be negotiated within the values and principles of a feminist position.

- a. True b. False

23. Awareness and analysis of power in society, power in relationships, and the connection between the two are fundamental to feminism.

- a. True b. False

24. Feminist approaches to psychotherapy have never supported the use of therapist self-disclosure.

- a. True b. False

25. The need for the therapist's self-care is important for both the welfare of the client and the therapist.

- a. True b. False

26. The terms "feminism" and "multiculturalism" represent two similar, yet distinct, theoretical orientations.

- a. True b. False

27. The moral codes for interpersonal relationships in many collectivist cultures, such as Vietnam, also influence society's response to domestic violence.

- a. True b. False

28. Feminists and multiculturalists who renounce hate speech are not advocates of censorship.

- a. True b. False

29. Integrity of the feminist mission with respect to the treatment of women often conflicts with one of its cardinal tenets: respect for individual, interpersonal, and cultural differences.

- a. True b. False

You have now completed the exam. Please answer the following evaluation questions. Your answers do not affect your test score:

30. I have completed all the requirements for this home study course without any assistance from others.

- a. True b. False

31. The content of this course was appropriate for my profession.

- a. True b. False

32. The course information was relevant and can be applied to practice.

- a. True
- b. False

33. The course information contributed to achieving personal, professional goals.

- a. True
- b. False

34. I would recommend this program to others.

- a. True
- b. False

Practicing Feminine Ethics In Psychology Certification Test
You may take this certification test online.

- 1. Log on to CommonwealthSeminars.com
- 2. At the bottom of the column on the left, click on “Take Your Test”
- 3. Click on Practicing Feminine Ethics In Psychology in the books listing.
- 4. Fill in the information requested. Use the Certification Number at the bottom of this page as your ID.
- 5. Take the test and submit it.
- 6. Download and print your Certificate of Completion.

Or you can fill out this printed test and send it to us.
Please fill in the following information and Mail/fax it to:

Commonwealth Educational Seminars
1020 West Barnstable Rd
Marstons Mills, MA 02648

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone: (____) _____ e-mail: _____@_____

I am seeking CE credit for the following profession(s):

Profession	License Number	State
____ Psychologist (APA):	_____	_____

____ Social Work (ASWB): _____

____ Certified Counselor (NBCC): _____

____ LMHC (NBCC): _____

____ Drug/Alcohol Counselor/LADC:(NAADAC): _____

____ Licensed Marriage/Family Therapist (NBCC): _____

Certification Number